editorial index

Accounting

Packaging labor costs: the need for accurate accounting methods Sep/Oct p. 72

Aerosols

Aerosol valve seepage rate estimated by water displacement Jan/Feb p. 16

Basics

Developing shrinkable polyethylene to meet special packaging needs May/Jun p. 27

A review of gravure printing Jul/Aug p. 5

Recognizing, analyzing and solving corrugated box problems Sep/Oct p. 63

Blister packaging

Packaging challenge: childproof unit dose blister package Jan/Feb p. 33

Books

Plastics in Packaging, Stanley Sacharow and Roger C. Griffin, Jr. Jan/Feb p. 37

Technical Advances in Packaging With Flexible Barrier Materials, American Society for Testing and Materials Mar/Apr p. 29

Sensory Evaluation of Appearance of Materials, American Society for Testing and Materials Mar/Apr p. 29

Packaging Management, John H. Briston and Terence J. Neill Sep/Oct p. 61

Plastic Films, J. H. Briston Nov/Dec p. 7

Cans

Charts on can diameter, height, volume May/Jun p. 34

The draw and ironed can: process and metal parameters, advantages May/Jun p. 14

Child proof packaging

Packaging challenge: childproof unit dose blister package Jan/Feb p. 33

Coatings

The role of heat seal coatings in seal-peel medical packaging Jul/Aug p. 27

Color

Sensory Evaluation of Appearance of Materials, a book published by American Society for Testing and Materials, is reviewed Mar/Apr p. 29

Appearance measurements, color difference tolerances Sep/Oct p. 53

Design

The integration of product design with package design Mar/Apr p. 4

A total systems approach to corrugated container design May/Jun p. 36

Base package design decisions on scientific facts, not on myths May/Jun p. 28

Translating merchandising ideas into sound packaging realities May/Jun p. 12

Education

Meeting the challenges of packaging education Mar/Apr p. 30

Environment

Position of package development as an environmentalist sees it Sep/Oct p. 14

Flexible packaging

Flexible packaging ideas for future bakery merchandising Jan/Feb p. 14

Technical Advances in Packaging With Flexible Barrier Materials, a book published by American Society for Testing and Materials is reviewed Mar/Apr p. 29

Developing shrinkable polyethylene to meet special packaging needs May/Jun p. 27

The role of heat seal coatings in seal-peel medical packaging July/Aug p. 27

Plastics in packaging: gas and vapor permeation Sep/Oct p. 29

A study of resin types in stretch film applications Nov/Dec p. 24

A review of polyethylene shrink wrap applications Nov/Dec p. 19

Glass

The problem of hydrodynamic breakage in glass containers Jan/Feb p. 11

Labor

Packaging labor costs: the need for accurate accounting methods Sep/Oct p. 72

Package Development, the journal for packaging professionals, is published bi-monthly by Scarborough Publishing Co., Ltd., Post Office Box 225, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. 10510. Telephone (914) 941-4891. Copies of articles published from 1971 through 1974 are available from Xerox University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. Copyright 1974. Scarborough Publishing Co., Ltd.

Machinery

Part II Evaluating existing machinery systems, justifying new Jan/Feb p. 23

Pharmaceutical labeling basics applied to Universal Product Coding (UPC) Mar/Apr p. 13

Packaging equipment design Jul/Aug p. 19

Nomograph for determining total package production vs. cycles per second or minute Sep/Oct p. 21

High speed packaging line equipment vs. flexibility Nov/Dec p. 17

Management

Potential problem analysis: a systematic approach Mar/Apr p. 17

An innovative packaging project July/Aug p. 9

Part I Research and development criteria

Part II Packaging/molding requirements

Part III Packaging equipment design

Packaging Management, John H. Briston and Terence J. Neill Book review Sep/Oct p. 61

Profile of full-time packaging professionals revealed by study Sep/Oct p. 26

Measurement

Appearance measurements, color difference tolerances Sep/Oct p. 53

Plastics in packaging: gas and vapor permeation Sep/Oct p. 29

Overview

Package developers are urged to learn to deal with regulations Jan/Feb p. 38

The integration of product design with package design Mar/Apr p. 4

Professionalism in packaging: what you can do to make it greater May/Jun p. 4

Radiation sterilization of packaged foods: a process that is being researched to death Jul/Aug p. 4

Shortages: real or artificial, temporary or longer Sep/Oct p. 4

Organization

Proper placement of the packaging function Jan/Feb p. 31

Plastics

Innovative packaging project: packaging/molding requirements Jul/Aug p. 13

Plastics in packaging: gas and vapor permeation Sep/Oct p. 29

Printing

A review of gravure printing as it is used in packaging Jul/Aug p. 5

Professionalism

Professionalism in packaging: what you can do to make it greater May/Jun p. 4

Profile of the full-time packaging professional Sep/Oct p. 26

Quality control

Proper quality control begins with sound package development May/Jun p. 6

Production quality control of the universal product code (UPC) symbol Sep/Oct p. 67

Establishing an incoming quality control program for packaging Nov/Dec p. 8

Shipping containers

A total systems approach to corrugated container design May/Jun p. 36

Thinking steps in a program to standardize shipping containers Jul/Aug p. 30

Recognizing, analyzing and solving corrugated box problems Sep/Oct p. 63

Standards

Flexibility within standards through use of probability in selecting package test levels Jan/Feb p. 4

Performance standards in relation to the National Motor Freight Classification Nov/Dec p. 31

Specifications

A system for effective packaging specifications Mar/Apr p. 23

Sterilization of packages

Radiation sterilization of packaged foods: a process that is being researched to death Jul/Aug p. 4

Testing

Aerosol value seepage rate can be estimated by water displacement Jan/Feb p. 16

How to maximize the information yield in development testing Mar/Apr p. 8

Base package design decisions on scientific facts, not on myths May/Jun p. 28

Dynamics of package testing: help in understanding the relationships of the forces involved July/Aug p. 33

A generalized approach to the problems of vibration analysis for protective packaging Nov/Dec p. 24

Tools of the trade

Charts on can diameter, height, volume May/Jun p. 34

Nomograph for determining total package production vs. cycles per second or minute Sep/Oct p. 21

Tubes

How to select the right type of collapsible metal tube Sep/Oct p. 6

Universal product code (UPC)

Pharmaceutical labeling basics applied to Universal Product Code Mar/Apr p. 13

Production quality control of the universal product code symbol Sep/Oct p. 67

Index of Authors

Abbott, Robert A., Technical Director, American Society for Quality Control, Milwaukee, WI Mar/Apr p. 8

Ambrosio, Thomas J., Senior Package Development Scientist, Schering Corp., Bloomfield, NJ Jul/Aug p. 9
